Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

(e) the invention was described in-

(1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effect under this subsection of a national application published under section 122(b) only if the international application designating the United States was published under Article 21(2)(a) of such treaty in the English language; or

(2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that a patent shall not be deemed filed in the United States for the purposes of this subsection based on the filing of an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a).

2. Claims 1-6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. § 102(e) as being anticipated by Janus et al, U.S. Patent No. 6,829,198 (hereinafter Janus).

Regarding claim 1, Janus discloses a portable terminal system comprising:

a portable terminal device (remote source from col. 3, line 7) including a housing (not shown) and a first connector (18a);

an external speaker portion (10) for converting electrical signals from said portable terminal device to sound wave signals

Art Unit: 2645

(14), said external speaker portion including an external speaker and a second connector (16);

transmission holes (24a) through which the sound wave signals converted from the electrical signals by said external speaker are transmitted to said portable device, said transmission holes being formed in said first connector (18a) and said external speaker;

wherein said first and second connectors are electrically connected to each other to transmit the electrical signals from said portable terminal device to said external speaker (see abstract).

Regarding claim 2, see Figure 2.

Regarding claim 3, see Figure 2.

Regarding claim 4, see Figure 4.

Regarding claim 5, see Figure 4.

Regarding claim 6, see Figure 1.

Response to Arguments

3. Applicant's arguments have been considered but are deemed to be moot in view of the new grounds of rejection.
